When does the conference start?

Conference check-in will open Wednesday morning at 9:00 in The Conference Center followed by lunch at 11:00. The conference and opening ceremony will begin promptly at 11:45. The conference will conclude Friday afternoon at 12:30.

Anything I need to know about the venue?

The hotel is on a hill above the Conference Center so please keep in mind to wear proper shoes and bring with you weather appropriate clothing. There is a public parking lot across the street from the Conference Center if you choose to drive down, cost is $8 per day per car and will be the responsibility of the attendee.

How can I find the conference agenda?

The conference agenda is currently being finalized but you can find a tentative agenda attached to the Conference email announcement and on our website in the Latest News section. This year's anticipated topics include –

- Community Trust Building
- Trauma Informed Approach to Lockdown Drills
- Extreme Risk Protection Orders
- Trauma Informed Interviews
- Social Media and Communications
- Personal Finance
- Leadership
- Legal Updates
- Warrior Verses Guardian Policing
- Be the Change
- Resilience in Law Enforcement

When the agenda is finalized it will be emailed to registered attendees. Questions can be directed to the conference committee at info@NYWLE.org.

What should I wear?

Attire for the training sessions is business casual.

Conference photo will be Wednesday 10/16 and all uniformed personnel may wear a uniform but please be aware of the slight change to our normal schedule; Welcome Reception will begin immediately following our training day so you will not have time to go back to your room to change.

Attire for the Banquet is semi-formal.

Fitness attire for optional fitness activities.

How do I support this year's community service event?

In conjunction with our conference, we will continue our tradition of supporting the community. Information regarding this year's community service event will be forthcoming.

When should I arrive?

- For those traveling and staying overnight it is ideal to arrive on Tuesday. This will allow time for checking into your room, networking and being at the conference site for check-in Wednesday morning.
- On Tuesday afternoon there is the option of participating with fellow NYWLE attendees in a curling demonstration at the Olympic Center.

What is there to do in the area?

Lake Placid was home to the 1932 and 1980 Winter Olympics and U.S. Olympic athletes continue to use the Olympic Complex and nearby facilities to train. Individuals can book tours of the Olympic facilities or visit the Lake Placid Olympic Museum. There are also many shops and restaurants and nearby nature trails.
